Without full payment of this balance, your dancer will still be considered as an attending student, and regular monthly tuition will be charged to you. In addition, late fees may be applied to outstanding balances each month they are overdue.

Tuition received after the 10th of the month will incur a $20 late fee for the month, and each following month it remains overdue.

Any account more than 90days past due will be turned over to a collection agency. There will be a $30.00 service fee on all returned checks.

Tuition payments may be made online at <http://excelldancers.com/tuition.php> or dropped in the payments slot at the studio.

Please do not leave payment with the front desk at the WARF.

There are NO REFUNDS on registration, tuition, or recital and costume fees.

All accounts must be paid in full by the first week of May in order for students to receive costumes and/or participate in Spring Recital. Costumes are yours to keep.
